

MAKING OUR CONGREGATIONS SAFE FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

Dear Applicant:

The Unitarian Universalist Association and its member congregations are committed to ensuring the safety of their community members. It is our practice, therefore, to require all prospective staff members and all volunteers who are likely to work with children, youth, or vulnerable adults to provide information that will help us fulfill this desire.

There are four parts to this effort:

1. The first involves completing a fairly standard “Application for Paid or Volunteer Employment”. Please note that this form must be completed and signed – attaching a resume is not sufficient.
2. The second involves completing a “Voluntary Disclosure Statement”. This form requires answering explicit questions to raise the comfort level of congregational leaders that children, youth, and vulnerable adults are being protected from potential harm.
3. The third part involves signing a release that authorizes church leaders to explore your background sufficiently to document that there is no cause for concern about your suitability for paid employment or volunteer work within our congregation.
4. The fourth part involves reference checks being conducted by church staff or church volunteers. Your only role will be to provide contact information for those references in your application form. Be aware that individuals other than those whose names you give as references may be contacted.

To ensure the safety of our children, youth, and vulnerable adults, completing these steps are required to serve in certain roles in our congregation. In most instances, members of the governing board of the congregations will have already submitted themselves to this same process, as a way of “modeling” the importance of the effort.

We thank you for your willingness to serve our congregation, and for your role in ensuring it is a safe and nurturing place.
